

LIFEPREP ACADEMY

Professional Development Workshops

Course Description

This course is for counselors and college-career staff who regularly implement guidance programs in California schools or districts.

Participants learn how to navigate the LifePrep Academy College, Career and Life After High School Planning guide as a convenient and centralized place where counselors can access key information and resources.

In addition, they learn how to use the planning guide as an instrument to facilitate communication and collaboration with parents. It pushes them to rethink their parent and student engagement practices and redefine it with new possibilities offered by LifePrep Academy tools and resources.

Here's how we help you practice effective parent and student engagement by bringing LifePrep Academy professional development workshops to your school community:
